

Solicitor Legal Engagement Notice Process in Detail

Before considering court action we suggest instructing our Solicitors to send an Intention to Commence Legal Proceeding notice to the debtor. This strengthens our demand letters and shows that you will take the next step. This has produced successful outcomes and can potentially save you money on court proceedings.

At every stage, we pause and run through the sequence below

